Transform Lives Tomorrow

Your Support Can Make A Difference

Whether it's Storytime for a toddler, computer access for a teen to do research, English classes for a new citizen, or a genealogy search for an older adult, the library is a lifelong learning community center with free access to all. Partner with Franklin County Library System to make a difference and celebrate the library services you have always enjoyed. Create a legacy that ensures, through your investment, the next generation will have a great library for their future needs.

Our Mission

The mission of the Franklin County Library System is to enrich the lives of residents of the region through access to materials, information, and services imparting the knowledge, experience, and wisdom of others, through qualified staff members, programs, and partnerships with other local agencies.

Types of Charitable Gifts

When developing your estate plan, many options can be utilized to benefit loved ones and charities. Contact your attorney, accountant, tax consultant or financial advisor for assistance in deciding what is best for you.

Gifts of Cash, real estate, appreciated securities, or personal property.

Bequests are made through a will. This is done by designating a set cash amount, specific securities, property or remaining portions of an estate to be given to Franklin County Library System.

Life Insurance can be given by making Franklin County Library System the owner and irrevocable beneficiary of a life insurance policy.

Charitable Trust is a revocable trust whereby the donor transfers ownership of assets into a trust for the benefit of Franklin County Library System over a set period of time, with the assets being returned to the donor at the end of a stipulated term.

Charitable Gift Annuity is an irrevocable gift of assets to Franklin County Library System, whereby the donor will receive a guaranteed lifetime income, either as a fixed dollar amount or a fixed percentage as annual payments.

Retirement Plan Franklin County Library System is made a beneficiary upon the death of an individual or the individual and the spouse.

How You Can Make a Difference

You can make a contribution to the future of the Franklin County Library System by leaving a specific dollar amount or percentage of your assets through a bequest in your will or other planned gift. Or you can make a charitable gift during your lifetime that allows you to take maximum advantage of the deduction on your income tax return. Either way, your donation will positively impact library services and all local community residents.

What is a Charitable Gift?

A charitable gift is a way to designate a donation today that will help tomorrow. You don't have to be wealthy to help your library and your community. A gift of any size will create a legacy that ensures that library services you have enjoyed for years will continue in years to come.
