Summer Reading 2017

June 3 – August 5

Sign Up for Fun!

The library has summer activities and reading prizes for all ages.

We have a new online program for tracking your reading progress. Reporting can be done from home or at the library.

Children: Track minutes! Reading prizes are awarded according to minutes spent reading. Prizes are awarded at 150, 300, 450, and 600 minutes.

Teens and Adults: Track Titles! Each book read and recorded is an entry toward prize drawings.

Prizes include books and coupons from nearby G.T.s, slushies from Sander's Market, gift baskets, and prizes from other local businesses and community members

Glamping On the Green

Join us on the library green on June 3rd for a special kick-off event. Glamping is "glamorous camping, the activity of camping with some of the comforts and luxuries of home."

Prizes will be awarded for the group or individual who sets up the "glampingest" site.

Phone or visit the library to register for your site before May 31. In case of rain, we will be moving the event indoors. Please plan your site accordingly.

Questions? Call or visit the library for more information.

Teen Activities

Help to "Build a Better World" by getting involved with our teen and tween programs.

- Help to maintain the Appalachian Trail
- Implement a reading and craft program for the younger children
- Make a movie
- Create a piñata for the Ice Cream Social
- Assist at a local nature preserve

Check with library for dates and times.
